● Dear Moeller Family,

I'M PLEASED to announce to you that a president has been hired for Moeller High School: William E. Hunt, who currently is a director of development for the University of Dayton.

As you may know, we have been studying the president-principal model for several years. After careful deliberation and in conjunction with our new long-range strategic plan, the Advisory Board and I made the decision to move Moeller's governance structure in this direction to further strengthen the school's mission and vision and to ensure Moeller's long-term viability.

We believe you'll be impressed with our new president's stellar qualifications. Bill has 17 years of experience working with alumni, donors, faculty, and staff at the University of Dayton. He has served as UD's director of annual giving, director of alumni programs, director of alumni relations, and a director of development.

During that time Bill demonstrated measurable leadership in establishing alumni and volunteer connections with the university. He engaged more than 7,500 university alumni and friends in 34 nationwide chapter cities through his planning, marketing, and implementation of approximately 360 annual initiatives and events. He successfully cultivated volunteers, leading 13 volunteer leadership conferences and managing approximately 120 alumni and community volunteers annually through a variety of programmatic initiatives that served to build and maintain lifelong relationships with the university.

As a human resources leader, he managed a board of directors responsible for the strategic direction of the university's National Alumni Association and in a role prior to his UD years he developed an employee feedback process that enabled the staff to build process improvements, implement suggestions, and recognize individual contributions. He also created systems that helped maintain staff continuity and retain a high level of customer service.

As UD's director of alumni relations, Bill successfully administered an annual $1.1M operating budget and negotiated merchandising contracts that ensured an annual revenue stream of more than $150K for the university's National Alumni Association.

In his role as a director of development for the university, he designed and implemented a $2M leadership gift strategy to support three fundraising initiatives, and as director of annual giving his peer-to-peer solicitation plan increased leadership annual gifts by 8%.

In addition to his extensive experience in university management and advancement, Bill has a background in business and in marketing, formerly serving as a regional manager for PepsiCo and as a director/manager for the Carlson Marketing Group. He graduated from the University of Cincinnati with a B.A. in pre-management and from the University of Dayton with an M.B.A. in management.

Most importantly, because of Bill's many years at UD, he has a keen understanding of and dedication to the Marianist Charism, which is central to our culture. His years of commitment to our Catholic mission and its principles, combined with his successful development experience at the college level, make him uniquely qualified for this inaugural role at Moeller.

I hope you'll join us in making this new member of our Moeller Family feel welcome. His acceptance of this important role marks a new beginning for our school and is something to celebrate as we move into our 50th anniversary year.

Yours in service,

Blane Collison, Principal

"I hope you'll join us in making this new member of our Moeller Family feel welcome."

Editor's Note: When we were looking for students to feature on our cover for the "Now" version, I asked the administration for "amazing grad" suggestions, and the result was the students depicted above (plus one "amazing" junior). Each one is worthy of his own feature article, but space limits us to four of the above who earned Moeller's highest honors (see page 3). However, I can give you at least one reason why these students were consider so "amazing."

● IN MAY, MOELLER LAUNCHED a new website — www.CelebrateMoeller.org —

to keep you up to date with all our 50th Anniversary activities and much, much more. For example, you'll find...

- Unfolding news about the July 24 Summer Celebration on campus, featuring the Cincinnati Pops Orchestra playing movie themes, Toast (The Band) playing music covering all of Moeller's decades (1960-2010), and "A Taste of Moeller." This event officially kicks off our 50th Anniversary celebratory year!
- The Moeller Veteran's Memorial Wall news, which includes our most up-to-date military listing of Moeller Family members and information about the July 24 groundbreaking ceremony.
- The 40th Anniversary magazines that contain our previous "Moeller through the Decades," featuring a year-by-year "snapshot" of life at Moeller as viewed through The Templar (the school yearbook). In this issue we continue the series as part of our 50th Anniversary celebration (see page 7).
- A calendar of the latest 50th Anniversary activities.
- How to get involved in this once-in-a-lifetime celebration! With all the various events now being planned throughout the year, we hope you'll choose to join us!

Another goal of this website is to provide a great place for alums and friends to post Moeller stories — several "tales out of school" are already available, along with podcast interviews of notable alums by our WMOE Web-radio broadcasters. We also plan to scan all the year-books and make them available for you to view online. Our hope is this site lives on far beyond 2010!

So join us this year as Moeller reaches a golden milestone. We look forward to connecting — or reconnecting — with you!

Four 'House' Leaders Receive Highest Honors

SCHOOL CAPTAIN JOSHUA BURANDT '10 of Trinity House earned Moeller's highest honor — the Man of Moeller Award, which is presented to the senior who exemplifies the type of graduate the school aims to develop. "Josh is a clear role model and respected by his peers and the faculty," said Principal Blane Collison, "which is why they elected him our school leader. Josh best represents our five Marianist principles — he is an outstanding student, service leader, social justice advocate, community builder, Eucharistic minister, and athlete..." Burandt will play football for the University of Chicago.

SCHOOL VICE CAPTAIN PETER BRUNS '10 of Quiroga House was this year's Valedictorian. He was also a National Merit Scholar and captain of the Academic Team. Additional academic accolades include the Greider Memorial & Scholar Athlete Award, the Michelson-Morley Award for Math & Science, and the Zoo Book Award. Besides being a brilliant student, Bruns served as a volunteer for Matthew 25 Ministries, attended a summer trip to West Virginia, and played on the varsity rugby team that won the state championship. He will attend Texas A & M.

SCHOOL VICE CAPTAIN TROY SUTER '10 of Pillar House earned two of Moeller's highest honors. He was Salutatorian and recipient of the Alumni Association's Gold Shield Award, which is given to the graduate who excels academically, demonstrates a solid spiritual life, serves others, and is an active participant in co-curricular activities. Suter was the president of the National Honor Society and received numerous academic honors, including the Bausch & Lomb Honorary Science Award and John Massarella Award. He participated in more than a dozen co-curricular activities and held several leadership positions. In addition, he was selected to be one of this year's graduation speakers. Suter will attend the University of Notre Dame.

TRINITY HOUSE CAPTAIN SPENCER HIDY '10 earned Moeller's highest service leadership honor — the Blessed Father Chaminade Service Award. Hidy accrued more than 500 service hours and countless hours working for MACH 1 (Moeller Advocates for a Common Hope), a group dedicated to social justice efforts in Over-the-Rhine. He served as the director his senior year and chaired MACH 1's first rummage sale that raised nearly $8,000 to support one of the group's recent initiatives, Choices Café. In addition, Hidy has served as a camp counselor, a youth coach, a tutor, a Eucharistic minister, a canned food drive coordinator, and a youth volunteer on summer service trips. He will attend The Ohio State University.

Moeller Haiti Relief Efforts

WHEN TRAGEDY STRUCK

Haiti in January, the Moeller Family mobilized immediately and formed the Student Committee to Help Haiti. The students decided to put their efforts into one initiative: getting the people of Haiti fresh water. With the help of Maurice Williams, a faculty member who used to work at P&G, the students collected funds for Pur packets. "A packet of Pur can turn a puddle of muddy water into potable water in minutes, providing 100 days of fresh water to someone in Haiti," explained Williams. The students donated more than $7,000. "The first 90 days after a disaster are the most critical for saving lives," said Williams. "We received a thank you from Procter and Gamble's nonprofit charity, Children's Safe Drinking Water. Moeller's donation is providing safe drinking water for 3,923 people in Haiti for 90 days. To put it another way, each (student) touched four lives in Haiti." Students also collected bottled water, promoted direct donations to the Red Cross and Catholic Relief Services, and volunteered at Matthew 25 Ministries. On January 23, 2010, Moeller's Haiti relief efforts were featured on the front page of the "Local News" section of The Cincinnati Enquirer.

Main Event Gala Nets Record Profit

MOELLER HAS much to celebrate as the school begins to commemorate its 50th year. The Main Event's Silver Anniversary Gala netted $292,000 — a record profit. "The Moeller Family continues to generously support our students — even more in times of economic difficulty," said Principal Blane Collison. "It's one of the special blessings of being part of this Marianist community." The support became most evident during the auction's Fund-A-Need opportunity. This year's greatest need was direct tuition assistance, and an anonymous donor offered to match whatever was raised during this event. As auctioneer Lance Walker opened the support level at $5,000, paddles went up throughout the room. "By the end, it seemed as though every guest had supported our Fund-A-Need at some level," said first-year Main Event Coordinator Marcia Lechner. "It gave me chills. It was such a powerful statement and an incredible gift — the gift of a Moeller education. Altogether, the Fund-a-Need raised $136,000."

YPC Warms Hearts

YOUTH PHILANTHROPY COUNCIL

(YPC) Reveals Heart-Warming Statistics: Sally Nugent, the YPC parent coordinator, said, "In four years, we've invested more than $33,000 in our community. We've done projects at 25+ non-profits, thereby touching more lives than we could imagine. Overall, 25 students (not counting YPC), have applied for a grant and then led a project (leadership development), and more than 250 students have worked on the various projects, many of them using that project to earn their required service hours and thus stay on track to earn their diploma... The council's work touches more lives than we can ever imagine. And our students are learning the importance of life-long giving. Maybe not always cash, but always with heart, and probably with sweat equity."

Bro. Flaherty's 'Irish Corner'

IN AUGUST 2010, Bro. Robert Flaherty, S.M., will celebrate his 50th anniversary as a Marianist Brother. To commemorate this jubilee event, Guidance Counselor Paul Smith initiated the construction of a special corner of the "Mary" courtyard to honor Bro. Flaherty's 50 years of service to the Society of Mary and 47 years of service to Moeller. "Having worked with Brother for so many years, I have seen many wonderful things that he has done for others," he said. "More than you can ever believe, and he has done that without bringing attention to himself." So, with the financial backing of the faculty, administration, and staff, "Smitty" hired a contractor to design what he called the "Irish Corner" outside the back doors of the school leading out to the courtyard, complete with pavers, a wrought iron bench and street light, a large rock containing a plaque, an engraved floor paver with a shamrock, and beautiful potted plants and landscaping. "Brother took care of the courtyard for years. It was his baby, and he did a fantastic job. He loves the courtyard." To also honor Bro. Flaherty's service to the school, he was named Moeller's 50th Anniversary Honorary Marianist Chair.

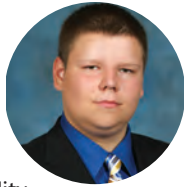

Bro. Flaherty relaxes on his bench in the new "Irish Corner" of the courtyard.

JV ACADEMIC TEAM EARNS

LEAGUE RECORD: The JV Academic Team completed their season with a league best record of 7-0. The varsity team of Captain Peter Bruns, Troy Suter, Alex Parra, and Jack Schlueter ended the season with a record of 6-1 in the GCL North division. The monies raised were divided between the Bubba Hoctor Fund at 5th/3rd Bank and CancerFree Kids. Bubba Hoctor, a senior football player at Moeller, is battling cancer. CancerFree Kids is an organization that supports research at Children's Hospital.

FACULTY MEMBER CONTINUES COMMUNITY LEADERSHIP ROLE:

Religion Teacher Jim Champlin was recently re-elected to Reading City Council.

New Rugby Team WINS STATE

MOELLER'S TWO-YEAR-OLD rugby program won the state championship on June 5, beating Parma 19-7. They finished the season undefeated, posting a 17-0 record. "Rugby has been a great addition to Moeller," said Athletic Director Barry Borman '64. "Doug Rosfeld '97 has done a great job, along with administrative assistant Kim Hauck, in putting together a first-class program in just two years. I have never seen kids have more fun playing a sport... The expectations for our team are the same as they are for any other program in our school. Doug has surrounded himself with several coaches who bring a unique expertise to the program. The team practices hard and prepares thoroughly for each opponent. To achieve what they have in the past two seasons is remarkable. In the first year of the program, the team finished an outstanding fifth in the state tournament."

Borman particularly commends the rugby fans for their support. "There were several hundred people who followed the team to Columbus to watch the rugby Crusaders capture the title," he said. "Like all the other athletic programs in our school, rugby is quickly laying a foundation of excellence that is contributing to the rich traditions of our school."

Now, after 50 years (1960-2010), Moeller's storied "Tradition of Excellence" includes 24 state team championships in six different sports: football (7) volleyball (6), baseball (5), basketball (3), lacrosse (2), and rugby (1). In addition, the Crusaders added two state runner-up titles this year — one in basketball and one in volleyball — for a total of 15 in six different sports: football (4), wrestling (3), basketball (1), golf (2), lacrosse (2), and volleyball (3). Another team accolade includes a trip to the Final Four for the baseball team. The team's pitcher, David Whitehead '10, recently was awarded the Ohio Gatorade Player of the Year.

2009-10 Athletic Season: A Year to Celebrate

By Barry Borman '64, Athletic Director

THE YEAR BEGAN with football starting the season 9-0, the best start in 20 years and qualifying once again for the state tournament. Golf not only captured the GCL title but went on to finish sixth in the state tournament. Winter sports were spectacular, with hockey making it to the Sweet 16 of the state tournament, while wrestling again won the GCL and went on to finish 6th at the state meet.

Basketball, which was supposed to be in a "rebuilding year," went to the state championship game.

Swimming, coming off its best season in history last year, followed up this year with an outstanding 13th place finish. Moving into the spring we trailed St. X in the All-Sports Trophy by nine points but quickly made up that deficit by finishing first in the league in both volleyball and baseball. Volleyball went on to finish second in the state tournament, while baseball made it to the Final Four for the third straight year. And the year was capped off with a rugby state championship. I am not sure that any other high school could celebrate a better school year. We had eight different teams finish at the Sweet 16 level or higher in state tournament play. Every varsity team finished in the top 10 in the Enquirer City Polls. Certainly all of our athletic teams — and especially our senior athletes — made major contributions to the rich traditions of Moeller High School.

ids are kids,” said alum Bruce Buckley ’67, father of six Moeller graduates, “and there are many similarities. Today’s kids have a higher standard of living and have travelled more, but they still do many of the same things we did.”

Alum Greg Stanforth ’67, current Art & Photo Department chair and father of one Moeller grad agrees. “Today’s kids are no different than the kids in the 1960s — only the times have changed. If we could have traded places with them, I think our actions would certainly mirror one another.”

“Today’s students have many more distractions than we had when we went through Moeller, but fundamentally they are very similar,” said Joe Meale ’65, current Science Department chair and father of two Moeller grads, James ’90 and Douglas ’94. “There have been no major changes to the psyche of the teenager since the ’60s.”

While all three agree that teens are much the same, they also believe that the world teens now live in is not. The sons of the “Greatest Generation” grew up in a much different world than the young “Men of Moeller” today. But what they all share in common is their Marianist heritage. “Moeller has done a good job of retaining the traditions while keeping up with the times,” said Buckley.

The following pages chronicle the traditions and experiences of the Men of Moeller during the last decade. This feature is a continuation of a series — “Moeller through the Decades” — that began when the school celebrated its 40th birthday. We published four issues of the magazine (then called “Windows”) as part of our anniversary celebration, and each issue depicted a decade in the life of Moeller students as captured by their yearbook, the Templar. Now, writer Peg Ashbrock (mother of Jonathan ’12 and wife of Dave Ashbrock ’74) has researched the past 10 years of the Templar and provided you with a year-by-year “snapshot.” Even if you weren’t a student then, you’ll find things haven’t changed that much... As the proverb goes, “The more things change, the more they remain the same.”

Under Construction

CHANGE WAS the news. Not only a new decade but a new millennium began at Moeller. The constant sounds of construction filled the halls, resulting in remodeled classrooms, the opening of the computer lab, and the dedication of the new Science and Technology Wing. This marked the end of the first phase and the beginning of future construction at Moeller. The much-anticipated groundbreaking took place on the new south wing and main entrance that would completely change the face of the campus. The freshman class became the first to use computers in all their classes. Many students added a trip to the new Information and Technology Center (ITC) as part of their school day to get some much-needed computer time.

New Library Technology Center debuts.

Amid all the changes, a timeless tradition: Sean Finnerty '00 and his date at Prom.

Activities

WITH THE TURN of the century, Moeller students expanded globally with peace and justice issues. Student Government called for a “new crusade” and focused on blood drives, elections, grub days, intramurals, rallies, mixers, and charitable events. The spring musical, Bye Bye Birdie, provided moments of drama and laughter. Fundraising for the many construction projects included the Main Event, the Fall Raffle, and the Volleyball Bash, a student-played tournament in the Activity Center. With gas prices “rising” to $1.80 a gallon, the parking lot changed from muscle cars to economy models.

Athletics

CONTINUING A STRONG tradition of athletic excellence, Moeller’s Football Program received a preseason national ranking. ESPN Sports even came to campus to record a show about the tradition of Moeller Football. Coach Kombrinck and the Cross Country Team marked the first “Big Moe” Cross Country Team to ever go to state, placing 10th in the 16-team field. Golf won the GCL; Nick Wunder and Coach Rick Bohne received Player and Coach of the Year honors. In basketball, junior Matt Sylvester was named GCL Co-Player of the Year. In swimming, both the 200 medley and 400 IM qualified to state. Wrestling ranked 6th nationally, 2nd at state, and won the GCL and many regional tournaments. Nick Lukens became state champ (171 lb.) and Joe Zinkan was state champ (140 lb.). Bobby Lyons finished as state runner-up (145 lb.). In baseball, the Crusaders were sectional, district, and regional champs, but lost in the state semifinal. Moeller’s Track and Field Team placed 9th in the state; Rob Paffe was the GCL Field Athlete of the Year. He set a new school and GCL record in winning the long jump (22’ 1 3/4”). Drew Walter (PV) and Mike Munoz (SP) were also GCL champions. In the regional championships, Paffe took first with a new Moeller leap of 22’ 7”. The 4x800m relay of Ken Dunbar, Brad Neumann, Pat Sullivan, and Brian Ehlers set a school record (8:05.2), as they qualified to state. Senior Ken Dunbar set yet another school record in placing 4th in the 3200m with a time of 9:18.8. The second and fourth place finishes of Mike Munoz (discus) and Brent Walter (PV) gave Moeller seven state qualifiers. Volleyball won the district, but lost in the regional semifinal.

Coach Kombrinck and the Varsity Cross Country Team are the first to ever go to state.

New Perspectives

WITH A SUCCESSFUL beginning to the new millennium, Moeller students and staff were in a state of prosperity and open to a positive perspective on the new decade. The school wrapped up the extensive recent construction and remodeling of the building and the Moeller Family felt a new outlook. Student Government President Matt DePetro summed up the optimism with his quote in the yearbook: "Dream, Believe, Become."

Walls of the new south wing construction going up.

Christmas on Campus is a meaningful annual tradition.

Activities

PASTORAL MINISTRY events affected students in new and more meaningful ways as they searched to understand their changing world. Through Kairos, retreats, and mission trips, Crusaders lived their beliefs with new experiences. For the first time, Moeller's Homecoming was held off campus at the Cintas Center. Sports rallies topped themselves with bigger stunts, including Jude Hueber and Erik Stoermer rappelling from the ceiling of the gym to destroy a 6x5 Elder Panther head. The spring musical, Kismet, exposed a new world view.

Dream, Believe,
Become.

Athletics

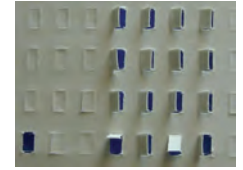

MOELLER continued to garner new honors. In football, the team finished as GCL co-champs, ranked #1 in Harbin ratings, and became the 20th team to advance to state playoffs. The last basketball game was played in the "old gym" as the Brisben Family Education Center construction sped along. The team won GCL and sectionals, with Matt Sylvester being named GCL Co-Player of the Year and Coach Kremer named GCL Coach of the Year. In swimming, the 200 medley of Ross Bittner, Rob Magnus, Evan Herdemann, and Michael Taylor qualified to state. Wrestling continued to dominate on a national level, earning its ninth consecutive GCL title, with eight athletes winning their weight class. Senior Joe Zinkan was GCL Wrestler of the Year and Coach Jeff Gaier was named Coach of the Year. Zinkan became Moeller's fifth state champ in the 140-pound weight division. The team won the sectional and district tournament and finished the year as state runner-up. Bowling made its GCL debut, and 60 students came to tryouts for Moeller's inaugural team. Moeller Boxing grew from a club sport to a team this season. Track set the bar high, with a new varsity record in the 4x800 and 4x1600 meters; Brent Walter set a new pole vault record for varsity, GCL, and regional competitions. Volleyball became the No. 1-ranked team in the city, with senior Chris Pennekamp selected to the First Team All-State. Jeff Silber was the first Moeller volleyball player to be named to the Fab-50 list of the top athletes in the nation.

Forging Ahead

THE WORLD STOOD still September 11, 2001. It was a confusing and emotional time nationally and at Moeller. As students struggled, they turned to their Marianist heritage to help them understand. The Marianist prayer that begins and ends each day was one source of comfort: "May the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit be glorified in all places through the Immaculate Virgin Mary."

The Moeller Family also suffered a more personal loss with the death of Jim Metz '71, a beloved teacher and coach.

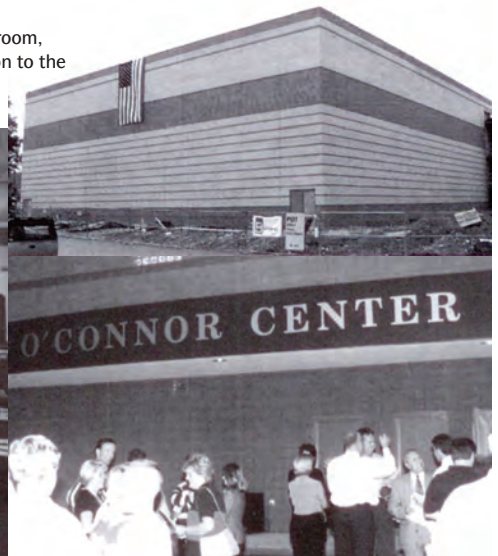

Students relax and take time to appreciate the gifts of a Moeller education.

The Marianist prayer that begins and ends each day was one source of comfort: " May the Father, and the son, and the Holy Spirit be glorified in all places through the Immaculate Virgin Mary."

Called together as a family, Moeller remembers teacher and coach Jim Metz '71.

Clockwise to right: The Brisben Family Education Center houses classrooms, a board room, athletic offices, the Spirit Shop, Hall of Fame, locker rooms, and an elevator, in addition to the magnificent gym. Hundreds tour the dedication in October of the O'Conner Center.

Activities

THE MEN OF MOELLER forged ahead, with service and outreach taking on a larger profile as more students chose to take service trips as far away as the Solomon Islands and as close as Over-the-Rhine. With the advent of the X-Block, Moeller introduced a new journalism program and resurrected The Crusader. The Science Fiction Film Club was introduced. Kiss Me Kate entertained packed audiences. And the “Arting Crusaders” broke the million-dollar mark in competitive art scholarship offers.

Evan Herdeman (to left) set new school records in both the 100 fly and 100 backstroke.

Athletics

KEVIN O’CONNOR was the chief benefactor of a new wrestling and weight training center. The Brisben Family Education Center was dedicated and housed a magnificent gym, classrooms (with air conditioning!), the Athletic Offices and Hall of Fame, the new Spirit Shop, and more.

This year Moeller played its first basketball game in the new gym. Crusader Soccer was the GCL champ, with player Bobby Trybula named Player of the Year and Coach Hurley named Coach of the Year for the fourth time in seven seasons. Moeller’s Swim Team sent four to state, and Evan Herdeman set new school records in both the 100 fly and 100 backstroke. Wrestling bounced back to win sectionals and qualify nine for the districts, where they placed second as a team, with four heading on to state competition. Tennis qualified two to the sectionals. The Track Team was district champs, and 10 Crusaders qualified for regional, where they placed sixth. Three placed at state: Sam Sharp (11th in 800M run), Ben McGrath (9th in discus), and Brent Walter (3rd in pole vault). For the first time, a boxing team sprouted the Crusader logo as they held the inaugural boxing contest on school grounds. Bowling also made its debut, finishing sixth in the regional. The Ice Hockey Team skated on to the third round of the state playoffs. Volleyball was GCL co-champs and district champ, with Nick Meyer named GCL Player of the Year and First Team All-State. Coach Greg Ulland was the recipient of the Ohio Coaches Award for Special Achievement.

Ledford Leaves

BY DEFINITION, the word "champion" has three meanings. As a noun, a champion is a person who has defeated all opponents in a competition or series of competitions; as a verb, a champion is a person who fights for or defends any person or cause. And as an adjective, champion means "first rate." Any version fits the Men of Moeller.

For eleven-and-a-half years, Principal Dan Ledford '66 was Moeller's champion: he pioneered the student laptop program; he initiated an aggressive capital improvement; he nurtured outstanding Pastoral Ministry programs; he supported innovative academic initiatives; and he was an avid patron of Moeller's theater program. His legacy is already renowned.

CHAMPIONING a cause, Moeller students, parents, and staff rolled up their sleeves to build a Habitat for Humanity House. The 40th class to graduate from Moeller began a new tradition: Instead of a professional singer, members of the chorus led the rest of the class in singing the "Alma Mater." The 200 graduates achieved just under $6 million in scholarship offers, with five senior art students responsible for $2 million alone.

"First rate" describes the comprehensive and expanding Pastoral Ministry Department. Performing arts offers the championship Marching and Jazz Bands, the Men's Chorus, and performances of The Odd Couple, Hello Out There and A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum.

Coach Kremer won the Dick Berning Coach of the Year award for the sixth time in 11 years. In bowling, senior captain Craig Tokarsky rolled a perfect 300 game — the first in the history of the league. In swimming, senior Rob Magnus won the GCL in the 100 breaststroke for the fourth time; freshman Matt Angelini qualified to state in the 100 backstroke and placed 16th. In wrestling, the team won the GCL and moved on to a third place in sectionals.

Collison Arrives

THE 2003-2004 was a year of hellos and goodbyes at Moeller. The Moeller Family welcomed new Principal Blane Collison, but bid farewell to Dean of Academics Bro. John Habjan, S.M., who left to take on the assistant directorship of Marianist education. After 38 years, Bro. Charlie Wanda, S.M., retired officially but still was active consulting with art students. Sr. Mary Donata also retired after nine years of service to the Moeller community. And it was goodbye to tight quarters in the Art & Photography Department as well, after claiming a new home in the former faculty lounge.

All-school Mass begins Lent on campus.

2003-2004 was a year of hellos and goodbyes at Moeller.

Activities

MISSION TRIPS to Mexico, Honduras, Appalachia, Georgia, and an Urban Plunge in Over-the-Rhine introduced seniors to service opportunities with a global perspective. At the opening Mass, Father Tedesco urged students to say 'YES' in the same fashion that Mary did. "We Stand with Mary" became the motto for the school year. Inspirational speaker Matthew Kelly spoke on 'being the best version of yourself,' and all students received his book The Rhythm of Life. The Men's Chorus continued to grow and display their singing talents, "Arsenic and Old Lace" entertained, and winter's bright spot became a night at the IMPROV, selling out performances every night.

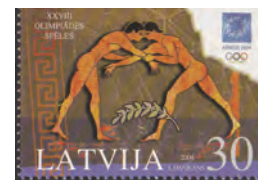

Athletics

THE FOOTBALL TEAM finished 3rd in the Harbins and was the 22nd consecutive team to reach the playoffs. In cross country, Luke Beuerlein set a school 5K record, was the district champion, and then moved on to state and placed sixth. The golf team was GCL, sectional, and district champion, and they placed third in the state. Basketball won the GCL, sectional, and district but lost in the regional finals. Andrew Brackman was named the Player of the Year for the GCL, the city, Southwest Ohio and state. Josh Duncan was First Team All-GCL, All-City, All-District, and Second Team All-Ohio. Bubba Walther was First Team All-GCL, Honorable Mention All-City and All-District. In swimming Matt Angelini set new district records in both the 200 IM and the 100 backstroke and was the lone state qualifier, placing 9th in the IM and 10th in backstroke. The wrestling team was GCL, sectional, and district champs; the team finish 8th in the state. Baseball won the GCL, sectional, district, regional, and state championships. Cameron Satterwhite was the GCL Player of the Year; Andrew Brackman was Ohio Player of the Year and the LaRosa's Male Athlete of the Year. In tennis, Thorsten Bendowski qualified to district. The track team again won the GCL, with 10 athletes named GCL champions.

Both Moeller baseball and volleyball teams claim state titles.

Luke Beuerlein was selected GCL Runner of the Year. Track won district and qualified to regional in 12 events, where they were second with nine athletes moving on to state. D.J. Hlovchic was 4th in pole vault. The 4x800m relay team of Luke Beuerlein, Danny Frost, Matt Hook, and Sam Sharp set a new school record. Volleyball was GCL, district, regional, and state champion. Robbie Klein was named Player of the Year in the GCL, the city, the Southwest district, and the state. Mark Wimmers was First Team All-GCL, city, and Southwest Ohio, as well as Third Team All-Ohio. Head Coach Greg Ulland was GCL, Southwest Ohio, and state Coach of the Year.

Our Marianist Charism

ACCORDING TO the yearbook, "Moe-ology" is defined as "learning together to become champions, working together as a team, and striving to be the best." Perhaps English teacher Mike Moroski summed it best: "It's reaching far out of the classroom and into the arts, social justice, athletics, spirituality, friendship, and family." It's the Marianist Charism in action.

An important characteristic of the Marianist Charism is the presence of "Family Spirit." This year the Moeller Family welcomed alumnus Mike Rakel '72 as the new dean of academics, and they mourned the death of teacher and coach Thomas Ash who lost his fight against brain cancer.

Activities

THE FINE ARTS took center stage this year as Bill Braun '72 provided the woodwork and Bro. Charlie Wanda the glass carvings to create Moeller's new panels by the main stairwell featuring the five Marianist Characteristics. The old gym evolved into a multipurpose theatre space with an extended stage, new carpet, sound panels, and newly painted walls. And the new theatre used the space well, hosting the fall play, Romeo & Juliet, a winter one-act play, "The Ugly Duckling," and the spring musical, 1776.

The Marianist principle of teaching for service, justice, and peace was evident as visitors from Bangladesh enlightened the Moeller students about sweat shop conditions in their country. Guest speaker Milton Creagh touched the student body with his call to action: "America needs you." Furthering the Marianist Characteristic to educate for adaptation and change, the junior class leaders prepared to roll out next year's new House System. The mission of this new student governance system is to further enhance pastoral care and leadership skills and to deepen relationships within the Moeller community.

FOOTBALL FINISHED #4 in Harbins and became the 23rd team to qualify for state. District cross country champ Luke Beuerlein moved on to state where he finished third. Golf won their sectional, placed third in district, and finished as state runner-up. The basketball team won the GCL, sectional, district, and regional, but lost to rival St. Xavier in the final four match. Bowling won two sectional matches to qualify for regionals. The Crusader Ice Hockey Team also made it to the final four. Swimmer Matt Angelini became a three-time GCL All-Star; four swimmers qualified for districts, and Matt moved on to state setting new records in his 200IM and 100 backstroke. Building Family Spirit

A NEW TRADITION graced the Moeller campus this year with the introduction of six "Houses": Eveslage, Pillar, Quiroga, Trinity, Zaragosa, and Zehler. The new House System's goals are to provide more individualized pastoral care, to create leadership opportunities, to strengthen students' interpersonal relationship skills, and to build community within the Moeller Family.

Activities

“HOME” BECAME a more global concept, with 10 international exchange students attending Moeller and eight Crusaders heading overseas for classes. The concept of “House families” was felt more deeply as students worked to create a better environment on service trips to Georgia, Honduras, La Chinantla, Pedras Negras, Mexico, Glenmary Farms, Kentucky, and Over-the-Rhine. Throughout the year Crusaders lent a hand to Hurricane Katrina victims, feeding the hungry at the annual Food Drive, the Blood Drive, and wrapping up the ReSTOC project on Republic Street. Special guests this year included members of the Invisible Children organization, Marvin Lewis, and Vietnam veterans who shared their stories. My Three Angels, A Night at the Improv, and the musical Grease trod the boards in the theater, while the Men’s Chorus performed a fall concert of western music and a spring event featuring American folk songs.

Athletics

FOOTBALL AGAIN qualified for playoffs. Golf won sectionals, placed 2nd at districts, and moved to state, finishing 4th. Soccer won the GCL, and Steve Wujek was selected to the First Team All-GCL, All-City, and Third Team All-State. John Bentley and Jon Myers were also First Team All-GCL. Bowling set a school record in a match with Fairfield, and Jake Maciulewicz set a school record for a three-game series.

Steve Wujek outran most opponents this season as he made The Enquirer’s All-Star Team, Division I, and Third Team All-State.

Wrestling also won the GCL for the fourth consecutive time and 10 wrestlers won their weight class. They won sectionals, and all 14 qualified to districts. Nine moved on to state, and eight placed in the top eight; Coach Gaier was honored as the State Coach of the Year.

Swimmer Matt Angelini was named

The ski team again placed first in the high school race. Baseball won sectional and districts. The lacrosse team qualified to the Flight ‘A’ state semi-final match; Mitchel Frey and Sean Finegan were named to the Second Team All-Ohio. Volleyball romped through the season winning GCL, district, and regional, but ended with a loss to St. Xavier in the finals. Dan Brandel was named First Team All-GCL and All Southwest Ohio; Ryan Strizak received First Team GCL honors and Second Team Southwest recognition.

'To Be the Best'

MISSION '07 was the year of setting the goal to be the best on all fronts: sports, academics, leadership, and spirituality. The new House System enhanced this mission.

Students "best dressed" at Moms' Club Fashion Show.

Once again the "Arting" Crusaders are best at the Montgomery Kiwanis Art Show.

Activities

THE HOUSE SYSTEM continued to grow, and this year marked the debut of the House symbols. Science teacher Tim Erdmann introduced a new elective where students could spend part of their summer getting hands-on biology experience in the Colorado Rocky Mountains. More students traveled on service trips to Piedras Negras, Honduras, Liberty (Kentucky), Slidell (Louisiana), and Nicaragua. Social justice efforts continued through UNIFAT (the Ugandan school that Moeller students help support), and Shantytown. MACH 1 (Moeller Advocates for Community Housing) began. Moeller's Theater Department presented A Night of One Act Plays, The Faces of Improv, and the musical The Baker's Wife.

Dean of Academics Mike Rakel left Moeller to return to active teaching. And, after 39 years at Moeller as the "winningest" coach ever in Ohio Division I Baseball, Mike Cameron retired as head baseball coach but continued to be department chair for physical education and health.

Tim Erdmann holds class with the mighty Rockies as his backdrop.

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED in sports this year. Moeller won the third GCL All Sports Championship in its history! At the district golf meet, Mark Reinhold captured medalist honors and earned Second Team All-State. The team headed to state for the fifth consecutive year, and Coach Bohne was named The Enquirer's Division 1 Coach of the Year. Football again made it to the playoffs for the twenty-fifth time. In cross country, Brad Meyer and Holden Marsh went to regional, and Brad to become the third Moeller runner to qualify to the state meet twice. In soccer, Jon Myers and Joe Huhn were First Team All-GCL. Jon was also First Team All-City and Third Team All-State. Basketball became the GCL, sectional, district, regional, and state winners. Troy Tabler was a First Team selection (All-GCL, All-City, All-Southwest Ohio), Second Team All-State, and named as the Division 1 Tournament MVP. Quinn McDowell was First Team All-GCL and All-City, Third Team All-District, and First Team All-Tournament. The team was ranked #16 in the nation and became state champions again. Volleyball marked their fifth state championship in 12 years. In bowling, a second place in sectionals qualified the Crusaders to district, with Jake Maciulewicz qualifying to state. He was named as one of only 29 bowlers in the nation invited to a tournament at season's end. Wrestling won GCL, sectional, and district, with 10 wrestlers moving on to state and finishing second. Germane and Frank Becker both captured a state title. In swimming, Brian Howell became an All-Star in three events — 200 IM, 100 backstroke, and 400 free relay.

Joe Albers, Kevin Koenig, and Mike Krone were also First Team selections. semifinal. Tom Belza, Dan Burkhardt, and Alex Wimmers were named to the All-Ohio First Team, the All-GCL, All-City, and All-District First Teams. Tom was the GCL Player of the Year. Coach Cameron was named Coach of the Year at every level, including state. The 2007 team was #1 in the state in the final baseball coaches' poll. The lacrosse team won the Flight 'B' competition in the Midwest Lacrosse Invitational, and advanced to the state semifinals. Sean Finegan was named to both the All-Midwest and All-State First Teams; Jarred Bowman was First Team All-Midwest and Second All-State; Corey Bauer and Rudy Bublitz were Second Team All-State. Volleyball finished their season undefeated (29-0) and won their fifth state championship. Dan Brandel and Lee Meyer were both First Team honorees at every possible level. Field of Dreams

BIG TRUCKS WERE on the move as ground was broken behind the Activity Center for the Gerry Faust Athletic Complex that will house a football practice field, track and field areas, and game and practice space for soccer and lacrosse teams. All classrooms on the east side of the second floor were refurbished. A volunteer moving crew of students helped unload the much-anticipated delivery truck of full-size desks.

Momentarily speechless, there were too many people to thank by name as Gerry accepted Moeller's (gifts).

WHILE PHYSICAL IMPROVEMENTS were key, spiritual ones dropped into place as well. In social justice, students were introduced to three aspects of poverty: local, global, and rural. More than 100 upper classmen hit the mission trail to Over-the-Rhine, Slidell (Louisiana), Peru, Piedras Negras (Mexico), and Liberty (Kentucky). Crusaders participated in exchange programs in Spain, Australia, and Namibia, and welcomed international students from Germany, Japan, Italy, and Brazil. Choices Café opened in Over-the-Rhine as an outgrowth of MACH1 to rousing success.

Technology moved forward with new tablet computers for teachers and an improved NetMoeller. In freshman physical education classes, new heart rate monitors heighten awareness of cardiovascular fitness. The English Department added required summer reading for all students, and campus-wide efforts got underway to go paperless. England in 1892 was the setting for the fall drama Charley's Aunt; Civil War America provided the context for the spring musical Shenandoah.

Tragically Moeller lost two students and members of the football team, Jordan Bessey and Richard "Andy" Carter over the summer. In response, the Buckle Up for Bessey program was initiated.

FALL SPORTS MOVED quickly toward success. Soccer players Brian Cron and Quinn McDowell were named First Team All-GCL. Golf finished second in GCL, won sectional, placed second in district, and finished second at state, with Ben O'Bryan and Andrew Dorn earning All-State honors. Football made it to the second round of regionals. Basketball won the GCL, sweeping all league opponents and was the AP poll state champs. Michael Davenport and Quinn McDowell were both named All-Ohio All-Stars; Coach Carl Kremer was named State Coach of the Year. Moeller wrestling sent six competitors to state and finished in the top 10 for the sixth consecutive year. Eric Gobin claimed four GCL titles. Ice hockey reeled off 14 straight wins en route to the regular season crown. In swimming, Brian Howell was named GCL Swimmer of the Year. A record

13 swimmers qualified to districts setting four new school records; seven swimmers qualified to the state meet. Baseball first-year head coach Tim Held led the team to GCL championships, with Pat Curtin, Ross Oltorik, Brent Suter, and Greg Williams selected as First Team All-GCL performers. Pat was named the GCL Player of the Year. Coach Held was the GCL Coach of the Year. They won the district and regional to advance to the state final four. Lacrosse finished a regional runner-up in the state tournament. Sean Finegan, Anderson Morgan, and Jake Hubbard were honored as First Team All-Midwest selections; Sean was accorded All-American honors as well. Veterans Memorial Groundbreaking

TO HONOR MEMBERS of the Moeller Family who have served honorably in the military services, the school is building the Moeller Veterans Memorial, which will be located at school's main entrance by the flag poles. The groundbreaking for this memorial will be held Saturday, July 24, the same day Moeller will officially kick off the school's 50th Anniversary with its Summer Celebration. The project will be completed in the fall and dedicated on Veterans Day this November.

July 24 at 50th Anniversary 'Summer Celebration'

Three men have led this project: Alumni Pat Monahan '66 (SSG Monahan served as an Army Infantry Squad leader in Vietnam Central Highlands in 1968-1969); former football coach Tim Waechter (CPT Waechter served as an Intelligence Officer and target acquisition specialist in Vietnam from 1969-1970 and as a basic training company commander at Ft. Knox from 1970-1972); and alumnus Doug Burwinkle '90, who designed the memorial. Burwinkle is a senior project manager for Reading Rock, Inc.

The Moeller Veterans Memorial will consist of an engraved wall surrounded by personalized pavers. All Moeller graduates and faculty/staff/coaches (serving four years or more) who served honorably in the military will have their names engraved on the wall. The memorial wall will include the veterans' name, class (or years served at Moeller if faculty or staff), rank, military branch, years served, and primary duty station. See sample below:

CLASS	NAME	RANK	BRANCH	YEARS SERVED	PRIMARY DUTY STATION
1966	Patrick Monahan	SSG	US Army	1967-1969	Vietnam
1982-2000	Tim Waechter	CPT	US Army	1969-1972	Vietnam
1964	Thomas Kenny	SP4	US Army	1967-1969	Korea

Listed on the page to right are those members of the Moeller Family currently listed in our database. "Unfortunately, our database is incomplete, and we need to collect all the above information from our veterans," said Associate Development Director Ginny Bauer. "We're asking all our alums and faculty/staff members who served in the military to contact me, so we can make this memorial wall as accurate as possible." Bauer can be contacted by e-mail at GBauer@Moeller.org or by calling the Moeller Advancement Office at (513) 791-1680, ext. 1300.

Moeller Family veterans pose for a picture after the 2009 Veterans Day Program. On November 11, 2010, the school will dedicate the Moeller Veterans Memorial.

Memorial brick pavers can be purchased online at www.Moeller.org and can honor any military veteran, family, friend, etc. "Paver sales will provide important funding for the memorial," said Waechter. "We are also in need of volunteer contractors. Please contact the Advancement Office if you can help."

Picturing the Future

MARC REISEN '02, assistant professor at the University of Cincinnati College Of Art, Design Architecture & Planning, created renderings depicting proposed renovations to the current Gallenstein Activity Center and main building, a side expansion that would include a new Performing Arts Center entrance. "These renderings are for people to dream and have a visual of what we could look like!" said Advancement Director Debbie Geiger.

"The renderings above and to the right depict the entrance to the new Performing Arts Center from the south side of our campus," said Bill Braun '72, Moeller's facilities director. "The Center would include a new home for the Music Department by providing rehearsal space for our band, percussion, choral, and theater programs. Its placement within the architectural 'footprint' positions it directly adjacent to a newly renovated auditorium (see rendering below right.) The Center would also include an expansion of the cafeteria on the lower level to provide for more meeting space and more flexible lunch scheduling."

Alumni Speaker Series Opens 50th Anniversary Year

In February, House Minority Leader John Boehner '68 spoke to a full-capacity audience, with former Principal Dan Ledford '66 providing the introductions. "Dan introduced John as only Dan can do," says Buckley. "His sardonic wit let everyone know John may be the House Minority Leader in Washington, but here he was just another Moeller grad. John spoke from the heart about what Moeller means to him and how he used the values he learned at Moeller during the course of his career." Pictured: The Class of 1968 attendees.

The January speaker series unofficially kicked off the 50th Anniversary activities, with Paul Keels '75, the "Voice of the Ohio State Buckeyes," and new TV announcer for the Reds, headlining the luncheon event at the Montgomery Inn. "Paul got us off to a great start," says Buckley. "He did a wonderful job of connecting his days at Moeller with his broadcasting career. The guys in attendance had a great time. We knew after this event the series was going to be a success." Pictured: Paul Keels '75 took time out to be interviewed by Moeller's WMOE broadcasters (from left: Neil Fredrickson '10 and Drew Fladung '10). This podcast and many more can be found on Moeller's new 50th website, www.CelebrateMoeller.org.

INSTEAD OF A speaker event for the 2000's grads, event chair Kevin Zilch '06 will focus on bringing members of the 2000 decade together at the July 24 Moeller Summer Celebration held at the Gerry Faust Sports Complex from 6-11:30 PM. For more information or to order tickets, call (513) 791-1680, ext. 1233, or go to www.CelebrateMoeller.org.

WHEN BRUCE BUCKLEY '67 became Moeller's 50th Anniversary Chair last fall, he knew one initiative he wanted to personally implement — an alumni speaker series. He and Advancement Director Debbie Geiger enlisted the help of alumni chairs for each decade and solicited notable alums as speakers. "I thought a speaker series would be a unique venue to reconnect with some of our alumni base," says Buckley. "We also wanted to use these events as a way to get guys thinking about the 50th Anniversary celebration."

"Each event has had its own unique flavor," said Buckley. "We couldn't be happier with the success of this series." Geiger agrees. "All the speaker events have been amazing," she said. "We plan to make this an annual tradition!"

Business executive and entrepreneur Adam Molina '96 was the "Decade of the '90s" guest speaker. "We were very proud to have him here," says event chair Nick Hodge '94. "Adam is Global Head of Business Development for 1798 Global Partners, a hedge fund started with Adam's help in 2007. Prior to this Adam held senior executive positions in New York City at several large capital markets and hedge fund firms. He had first-hand experiences to share related to the credit crisis, hedge funds, politics, globalization, 9/11, and Enron." Pictured, from left: Bruce Buckley '67; Nick Hodge '94; 50th Anniversary honorary chair, Bro. Robert Flaherty, S.M.; and Adam Molina '96.

In May, Lt. Col. David Thole USAF (Ret) '85, a Purple Heart recipient, was the "Decade of the '80s" guest speaker. Lt. Col. Thole served 20 years as an F-16 fighter pilot and was chosen in 2001 to be one of 10 initial pilots for the F-22, the world's most lethal combat aircraft. He retired in 2009 as Chief of the Weapons and Tactics Branch, Air Combat Command, Langley AFB, VA. He has been awarded the Purple Heart, Meritorious Service Medal, and Aerial Achievement Medal. "David took a different approach," says Buckley. "He used a slide presentation to explain his career in the Air Force, while interspersing photos of his Moeller football teammates. It was very entertaining." Joe Novello '85 served as event chair.

Michael Munoz '00 went on to lead the Tennessee Volunteers to the Southeastern Conference Championship and won the Draddy Trophy as the nation's top scholar-athlete.

Moeller #1 in the Nation in All-Americans

IN 1963, PARADE identified the top high school football players in the nation, kicking off its first annual PARADE All-America High School Team. Since then, the magazine has honored 2,395 players from 1,725 high schools across the country. Many of these athletes went on to outstanding careers in college and the NFL. But after 47 years, which high school has produced the most PARADE All-Americans? The answer may surprise you. See the 10 most honored high schools of all time...

Moeller Surprises Coach Gigliotti with New Athletic Conference Center

IN A SURPRISE MOMENT during the Hall of Fame luncheon in February, former Moeller coach and educator, Phil Gigliotti, learned that the locker room where he spent 17 years leading young athletes now had a corner suite bearing his name, the Phil Gigliotti Athletic Conference Center. "This added space allows for state-of-the-art film study and provides a great meeting place for our Moeller Crusaders," said Alumni & Development Director Jim Stofko '85.

Phil Gigliotti, spent 17 years educating and coaching the Men of Moeller, beginning in the fall of 1963. He is best known for his 16 seasons with the football program as Coach Faust's top assistant. However, he spent several seasons developing other Moeller sports. His leadership expanded the track program from 28 members in 1965 to 126 athletes two years later. In 1967-68, he was the head coach of the wrestling program, and the team achieved its first meaningful records. He also coached swimmer Dave Schipper, who earned Moeller's first individual state title, winning the 50-yard freestyle in 1973. "This is certainly a fitting tribute for Phil who touched the lives of so many people when he coached and taught at Moeller," said Athletic Director Barry Borman '64. "In addition, Phil has continued his relationship with our school and our football program as he continues to contribute to the growth and development of Moeller student athletes."

PATRICK WRIGHT '84 Wins an Oscar

PATRICK WRIGHT '84, chair of the Maryland Institute College of Art (MICA) Department of Video and Film, won an Academy Award for the short documentary, "Music By Prudence," a film that followed a band of disabled

Zimbabwe teenagers and their singer, Prudence Mabhena.

Wright served as the co-producer and associate editor. "We couldn't be more proud of him and the honor he brings to our family," said his nephew, Philip Marsh '10, a recent Moeller grad.

Patrick Wright '84 celebrates his Oscar with cinematographer Derek Wieseahn.

"Winning an Oscar is something I have always dreamed about, like getting married and having a wedding" he recently told writer Joyce Kaffel (<http://livingston.patch.com/articles/an-oscar-winning-labor-of-love>). "But I really believed I would get married... The Oscar was a fantasy."

Wright became a filmmaker because "he wanted to learn, to venture out of himself and his narrow slice of reality, to expand his vision and relate it to others," he said on his MICA website. To date, his film topics include HIV/AIDS, clergy sexual abuse, and controversial political commentator Ann Coulter. His films have screened internationally, and his piece on Ann Coulter, Is It True What They Say About Ann?, is currently on DVD. A number of his shorts are also exhibited in fine art galleries throughout the country, such as New York City's Artist's Space. MICA originally hired Wright to develop a video major at the university. His video department now has 40 undergraduate majors who produce a variety of films — from narrative to documentary and from motion graphics to Web-based multimedia projects.

Sports Stag Features UC's New Head Football Coach Butch Jones

THE 2010 SPORTS STAG featured new University of Cincinnati Head Football Coach Butch Jones. Hall of Fame Coach Phil Gigliotti recognized the 2010 Moeller Hall of Fame inductees, and the 1985 Moeller State Championship Football Team was honored, with Coach Steve Klonne giving a recap of that memorable season. Former Colerain and now current UC Coach Kerry Coombs spoke about Moeller's great tradition and how Coach Faust inspired his success at Colerain.

"Coach Butch Jones impressed the crowd with his inspiring words and solid character principles that made us all proud to cheer for our hometown Bearcats," said Alumni Director Jim Stofko '85. "Coach Jones won the crowd almost instantly when he told everyone how excited he was to soon be sending his son to Moeller!"

He studied in China last summer and served two internships in his three-and-a-half months in Shang Hai. Iacovone also excelled on the university's football team, a Division 2 program that ranked 19th in the nation. He holds the record for starts and games played in a four-year career, has been honored three times as an All-Conference Player, and is second overall on the team's tackles for loss and sack records for a career. (See picture above.)

In the fall he will be attending Ohio State University's Moritz College of Law, where he received a Moritz Academic Merit Scholarship. "The education and the discipline he gained while at Moeller have helped in making Chris a fine young man," said his mother, Jan Stroer. "His dad (Lou) and I are very proud and thank the Moeller Family for being a part of our family." (See picture above.)

Lindsey, Germane '07 became Moeller's first NCAA Wrestling All-American. As a junior at Ohio University, he earned All-American status on his second trip to the NCAA tournament.
